Hawkins

Martha M. Young was from a wealthy farming family from MS (when Martha was born AL may have been the Mississippi Territory). She had red hair and blue eyes. Her family disowned her when she married Thomas Hawkins.

Thomas Hawkins may have had some Indian blood. An aunt of mine had heard the name He-lan-thro (probably not correct spelling). She was told this name by one of Thomas' grandchildren.

Some of the older children went to Pensacola to find work. That's where Theodosia met Henry.

Daughter Theodosia Elizabeth Hawkins and her husband, Henry Webster (supposedly from Sweden) were married in 1875 and moved to Baldwin County sometime between 1875 and 1880 because they needed to be close to Theodosia's family so they could help after the parents died.

*Note: If anyone has any other stories, rumors or gossip about this family please let me know.

What I'd like to know most:

- ___ Father and Mother of Thomas Hawkins (Thomas was born in SC and so were his parents, according to census information)
- ___ Father and Mother of his wife, Martha M. Hawkins (Martha M. Young) (Martha was born in AL but her parents were born in SC, according to census records)
- ___ Where the family was for the 1860 Census (they don't appear in Monroe County)
- ___ Dates of death and burial site for both Thomas and Martha (I think they died between 1870 and 1880, because I can't find them on 1880 census records)
- ___ Information on their sons, Mark Hawkins, Henry Hawkins, Oscar Hawkins and daughter, Sarah Hawkins.
- ___ Where my Hawkins family actually lived in Monroe County (I think somewhere in or near Monroeville)
- ___ What church they attended
- ___ Was Thomas Hawkins part Indian? (family stories about him having an ancestor who was an Indian)

What I'd like to have:

- ___ Pictures of Thomas Hawkins and/or Martha Young Hawkins
- ___ Pictures of the children of Thomas Hawkins and Martha Young Hawkins
- ___ Copies of any Family Bible references to Thomas, Martha and their children.
(Verbal information would do)
- ___ Copies of letters or documents referring to Thomas and/or Martha
- ___ Signature of Thomas and/or Martha on anything
- ___ Knowledge that some artifact from Martha and/or Thomas exists

Here's what I know:

Family

1880 Census

Cannot find Thomas or Martha Hawkins

Sarah Hawkins and William Hawkins, children of Thomas and Martha, are living with their sister Theodosia Elizabeth Hawkins Webster and her husband Henry Webster in Baldwin County, AL

Although I've done a lot of research trying to get information on Thomas and Martha, most of the information above was furnished by my cousins Julie Suarez and Pam Yoakum who have been dedicated to researching and documenting our family. Any information I received will be shared with them.

Family of Henry “Harry” Webster and Theodosia Elizabeth Hawkins

HUSBAND:

Henry “Harry” Webster, SON of

Born: abt 1850, Stockholm, Sweden, not documented

Passage: unknown

Died: 5 Oct 1912, buried in Biloxi Cemetery

Note: Information about Henry comes only from family stories. He is said to have had black curly hair and blue eyes and a fair complexion. He smoked a pipe. He had an accent and had difficulty pronouncing the letter H. He had a sister named Helena. He didn't talk much about his family or homeland at all except for mentioning Helena and saying that they had lived in a nice house. He was a rafter (rode the logs on the river) for sawmills. It was said that he came to this country at a young age. He voted so he probably was naturalized. Webster is probably not his real name. The names Vester and Wester are known in Sweden as well as Germany and Luxemborg. He was very active in an old historic Episcopal church in Biloxi, MS, Church of the Redeemer.

Mrs. Pam Waters
Plymouth, England was the home or birthplace, not of one distinguished sailor of the Hawkins family only, but of three generations of men who were celebrated as heroes for a period of 100 years extending over the reigns of Henry VIII, Edward VI, Queen Mary, Queen Elizabeth, and James I.

Mrs. Birdie Comiskey
Pascagoula MS
Ph. 762-6459

The name of Hawkins is derived from the village of Hawking, in the Hundred of Folkstone. Osbert de Hawking, in the reign of Henry II, was an ancestor of Andrew Hawkins of Nash Court, near Faversham, Kent, in the reign of Edward III; which Andrew married Joan de Nash, an heiress, by whom the Hawkins became possessed of Nash Court, and from whom are descended the Hawkins of Devon.

This book is (Reference: Plymouth Armada Heroes - The Hawkins Family by Mary W. S. a really good one → Hawkins of England, hereafter will be referred to as with copies of PAH, Page#)

I have some pages. JOHN HAWKINS held lands in the town under the Corporation before 1480, and was dead before 1490.*
(* Rent roll of Plymouth in 1485.)

JOHN HAWKINS of Travistock, married JOAN AMADOS, daughter of William Amados of Launceston and held lands under the Corporation of Plymouth.

WILLIAM HAWKINS, son of JOHN and JOAN (AMADOS) HAWKINS was born at Plymouth towards the end of the 15th Century. He was an officer in the Navy of King Henry VIII. Being one of the privileged sea Captains in the West of England, he obtained a high and just reputation for his skill and experience, and was held in great esteem by the King. He was a man of considerable property in the town of Plymouth. He was Receiver of Plymouth in 1524-25; and in the Corporation books is mentioned in 1527-28, when he and others manned the bulwarks to defend the Argosy against the French. William owned a 200 ton ship called the Paul of Plymouth. He made his third voyage in 1532, and on his return was chosen Mayor of Plymouth, 1532-33. He was again Mayor in 1538-9. In 1539 he was elected
"Burgess" or member of Parliament, with James Horewell.

In 1544, William Hawkins purchased the Manor of Sutton Valltort or Vawter which remained in the Hawkins family until 1637-8.

WILLIAM HAWKINS married JOAN TRELAWNY, only daughter of Roger Trelawny of Brightorre. (Roger was the son of Sir John Trelawny and Blanche Pownde.)

(Ref: Hackluyt, Volume 25, Page 227, under title 'William Hawkins, and PAY, Pages 5 and 6.)

WILLIAM AND JOAN (TRELAWNY) HAWKINS had 2 children:

1. William Hawkins
2. John Hawkins

WILLIAM HAWKINS, Captain William of Plymouth in 1533, Mayor of Plymouth in 1567-8, was a big ship owner and his cruisers were the terror of Spain. He was a renowned sea captain.

William married (1st) ----- Name not given. Had one son and 3 daughters.

1. William Hawkins
2. Judith Hawkins
3. Clare Hawkins
4. Grace Hawkins

Second wife was Joan Tothill (daughter of William Tothill.) Children:

1. Richard Hawkins
2. Francis Hawkins - born 1582
3. Nicholas Hawkins - born 1584
4. William Hawkins - born 1587
5. Frances Hawkins
6. Mary Hawkins
7. Elizabeth Hawkins

William Hawkins died October 7, 1589, and was buried at Deptford, Kent.

III SIR JOHN HAWKINS, second son of WILLIAM and JOAN (TRELAWNY) HAWKINS was born at Plymouth, England in 1532. Sir John was one of the most distinguished men of his time. He was the patriarch of the great sea dogs of Elizabeth's reign, Frobisher, Drake, Gilbert, Candish, Raleigh, and others who later made voyages of discovery, but were boys when he was a man of mark. He made mathematics and navigation his study, and soon began to acquire knowledge, and to make good uses of his skill and learning.

He sailed on his first long voyage in October, 1562.

About 1557, Sir John married Katherine Gonson. She was the daughter of Benjamin Gonson, Treasurer of the Navy, the son of William Gonson, Treasurer of the Navy before him. In 1573, Benjamin Gonson resigned in favor of his son-in-law, Sir John Hawkins who held the office of Treasurer until his death in 1595, a period of 22 years.

Dame Katherine died after a lingering illness the first week of July, 1591. By the special permission of her husband she executed a will on June 23, 1591. She was buried in St. Nicholas Church, Deptford.

SIR JOHN and DAME KATHERINE had one son: SIR RICHARD HAWKINS.

(Ref: Dame Katherine's will, Pages 71-72 - PAH. Will proved October 16, 1591, at Rochester.)

SIR JOHN HAWKINS married (2nd) MARGARET VAUGHAN, daughter of Charles and Elizabeth (Baskerville) Vaughan, of Hergest. (Margaret's father Sir James Baskerville and wife lived at Eardisley Castle, Hereford County.) Margaret died in 1619. No children by this marriage.

SIR JOHN HAWKINS died at sea off Porto Rico on November 12, 1595. He was buried at sea. In accordance with his will a monument was erected to his memory in the Church of St. Dunstan's-in-the-East, in which Parish he had resided for 30 years.

(Ref: Volume 25 of Dictionary of National Biography, Pages 227-228, Hackluyts Principal Navigators, Vol. 3, and page 65, PAH.)

IV SIR RICHARD HAWKINS, only son of SIR JOHN HAWKINS and KATHERINE (GONSON) HAWKINS, his first wife, was born at Plymouth about 1560. From a boy he became his father's constant companion, and was brought up to a sea life, under great advantages, with his father and uncle, both renowned seamen, and then owning 30 good sailing ships. In 1582, he made his first long voyage to the West Indies. He was sent to Spain and was captured and held as hostage for Spaniards held in England. SIR RICHARD was the 6th CAPTAIN who had sailed around the World.

SIR RICHARD married JUDITH _____ before 1590, and they had 5 children:

1. Judith Hawkins baptized at Deptford, November 7, 1592, before her father became a prisoner in Spain, and she was 11 years older than the second child. She married Tristram Sture of Morridge House, Ugborough.
2. John Hawkins, born about 1600, was baptized March 16, 1604, at St. Andrews, Plymouth.
3. Richard Hawkins
4. Margaret Hawkins
5. Joane Hawkins
6. Mary Hawkins

SIR RICHARD HAWKINS died April 17, 1622. (Ref: Page 134-PAH.)

Will of Sir Richard Hawkins was proved June 13, 1622 by Dame Judith Hawkins. Dame Judith Hawkins made a will on May 27, 1629 and it was proved at London by John Hawkins (Page 141-PAH.)

V JOHN HAWKINS, oldest son of SIR RICHARD and DAME JUDITH HAWKINS, was baptized March 16, 1604, at St. Andrews, Plymouth, was at sea in the year that his mother died, and at her death he inherited the Manor of Poole, in Slapton, with the Plymouth estates. (Page 147-PAH.)

JOHN HAWKINS of Slapton married HESTER RICHARDS of Dartmouth in 1636.

Children:

1. John Hawkins, baptized June 24, 1639, died 1642.
2. Judith Hawkins, born 1640.
3. Richard Hawkins, born January 1641, Married Thomasine Sloley.
4. John Hawkins, born September 21, 1643.
5. William Hawkins, born November 6, 1644.
6. Hester Hawkins, born November 19, 1647.
7. Robert Hawkins, died young, buried at Slapton, _____.
8. Mary Hawkins
9. Thomas Hawkins, born -----married Sarah Crocker.
10. Nicholas Hawkins, born -----married Ann Manning.

VI

JOHN HAWKINS, son of JOHN and HESTER (RICHARDS) HAWKINS, born September 21, 1643, married MARY DEWE, (daughter of Edward Dewe of Islip, Oxfordshire). JOHN and MARY (DEWE) HAWKINS had fourteen (14) children born between 1671 and 1698. In the year 1682, John and Mary settled at Great Milton, Oxfordshire.

JOHN HAWKINS, a younger son of JOHN and MARY (DEWE) HAWKINS, born about 1680, emigrated to Virginia about 1705, and finally settled in St. Anne's Parish Essex County, Virginia. On November 3, 1724, Thomas Chew of Spotsylvania County, Gentleman, conveyed to him, describing him as "John Hawkins of St. Anne's Parish, Essex County, Gentleman", 1280 acres of land in St. George's Parish, Spotsylvania County, which had been granted to said Chew by patent dated June 12, 1723. And on the same day, Larkin Chew conveyed to him, under the same designation, 501 additional acres, also in St. George's Parish, Spotsylvania County, being part of a patent granted to Larkin Chew, June 4, 1722*.

In the winter of 1724-5 he seems to have moved over into King William County, Virginia, for on July 6, 1725*, Harry Beverly conveyed to him, describing him as "John Hawkins of King William County, planter," 400 acres of land on the North East side of Pamunkey River, and on both sides of the mouth of Terry's Run, alias Jigging River. He died prior to October 7, 1740, leaving a wife, Mary (Long) Hawkins and children:

1. Joseph Hawkins, married Jane Nicholas.
2. William Hawkins, married Margaret---- lived in Essex County.
3. Philemon Hawkins, married Sarah Smith.
4. Elizabeth Hawkins, married George Smith.
5. Phoebe Hawkins, married Charles Smith
6. Mary Hawkins, married Tallifero (Tolliver) Craig about 1730. They moved to Kentucky in 1781. They reared 11 children and Mary ("Polly") lived to see 84 of her grandchildren. (The history of this family is found in the "Sanders Family of Grass Hills" by Anna Virginia Parker--also the Hawkins part of this family.)

(Ref: * Spotsylvania County Records, Deed Book "A" date July 6, 1725.)

The three Smiths married to Eliza, Philemon and Phoebe Hawkins were the children of Samuel Smith.

(Ref. Page 143 of Hawkins Family in The Sanders Family of Grass Hills.) (Also on the same page - the marriage of Joseph Hawkins to Jane Nicholas.)

William Hawkins who resided in Essex County, describing himself as "of St. Anne's Parish, Gentleman" and his wife Margaret, on October 9, 1747, conveyed the 500 acres above mentioned to Rice Curtis, Jr., the same having been devised to him by his father's will. On October 7, 1740, and November 16, 1742, deeds of conveyance and release were executed to Philemon Hawkins by his brother Joseph and two of his sisters, in which their father is described as deceased.

VIII

JOSEPH HAWKINS is described in the deeds mentioned above as "son and heir" of JOHN; which fact indicates that he was the oldest son, and under the custom of primogeniture would inherit such of his father's lands as were not devised by will. He must have been born about 1707 or 1708, for the earliest discovered record of him is in the Order Book of the Spotsylvania County Militia, when he, as one of the officers of Captain John Scott's Company, produced his Commission before the Court of His Majesty's Honorable Justices, and took the oath as directed by law on September 2, 1729.*

In 1740 and 1741, he was living in Hanover County, Virginia, and in 1741 had a wife, JANE (NICHOLAS) HAWKINS. In the former year he executed the deeds of release to his brother Philemon Hawkins, mentioned above; and in the latter, he received a deed from James Jones and wife to 200 acres in St. George's Parish, Spotsylvania County, and made a deed to Robert Jackson of a lot in Fredericksburg. The death of his father and the inheritance and purchase of lands lying in that County seemed to have caused him to return to Spotsylvania, for in the second deed of release to Philemon, executed November 1742, he describes himself as of that county.

On the 7th of September, 1742, he produced before the Justices, as above his Commission as Captain of a Company of Horse, in which Commission he is described as "Gentleman; and he took the customary oath. On August 17, 1744, he witnessed the will of one Edmund Byrne; and on September 4, 1744 was appointed administrator of that estate.

On November 6, 1744, William Gaines and wife conveyed to him 442 acres in Spotsylvania County. On April 7, 1747, he had a deed from his sister Mary and her husband, "Taliver Craig" to 200 acres of the lands of their father on Terry's Run above. On November 1, 1748, he witnessed a deed made by Robert Stubblefield to Richard Baylor. On October 21, 1760, he had a deed from Bernard Moore to 310 acres in the North Fork of the North Anna River. On November 19, 1767* he conveyed to Larkin Chew 120 acres on a branch of Plentiful Run, in Spotsylvania County.*

On March 30, 1769, he executed his will, witnessed by and others named in the text above.

He left his wife, JANE (NICHOLAS) HAWKINS, "the tract of land left me by my father with that part of the back land that I purchased from Bernard Moore, Gentleman.

He left lands to his son, Joseph, and to his daughters, Lucy and Sarah. His wife, Jane (Nicholas) Hawkins and sons, John and Joseph were made executors. He died before March 27, 1770, for on that day the will of Larkin Chew makes mention of him as then "deceased." A deed by the son, Joseph Hawkins and his wife, Margaret, executed April 12, 1775, to William P. Thurston shows that the widow, Jane was still living at that date; and on January 13, 1784, she was living in Henry County, and executed a release of those lands to Thurston.

IX JOHN HAWKINS, eldest son of JOSEPH and JANE (NICHOLAS) HAWKINS, was born February 14, 1733. He married MARY WALLER before or about 1753. In August, 1767, he was living in Hanover County, Virginia as shown by a mortgage of that date, executed to him by one Edward Coleman.*

Shortly after the death of his father he moved down to Guilford County, North Carolina. He was appointed high sheriff of that County under the ROYAL GOVERNMENT, just before the Revolutionary War, and maintained some state, keeping a coach with a Coat of Arms painted on its doors. When the Revolution began he adhered to the cause of the Colonies; consequently he was deemed by the English and Tories (English sympathizers) to be a great traitor, especially because of the official position he had occupied. They captured him cut his right ear and imprisoned him on a ship in the Charleston harbor.

He was Captain of the 5th Maryland Battallion 1777-1781.

At the close of the Revolutionary War he returned to his family in Guilford County.

They were zeroxed at the State Archives at Raleigh, North Carolina, by Mr. William Perry Johnson, Editor of the North Carolinian Magazine and Professional Genealogist.

It is amazing how much money was owed to John Hawkins.

JOHN HAWKINS left his wife, MARY (WALLER) HAWKINS and the following children:

1. John Hawkins
2. Hardress (Hardy) Hawkins
3. Elizabeth Hawkins, married John Dick, who died in a year, leaving a daughter Mary Hawkins Dick, who subsequently became the mother of Mrs. Mary Hawkins Jackson of Nashville, Tennessee.
Elizabeth Hawkins Dick married Thomas Crowder and left several children, one of whom married a Mr. Nash.
4. Mary Hawkins, born September 9, 1771, married Emsley Parke on October 16, 1794. Children:
 1. Pleasant S. Parke
 2. Alfred W. Parke
 3. Frances Eliza Park
5. Frances M. Hawkins married a Mr. Duggar. Children:
 1. Elizabeth Duggar, married a Dr. Williams
 2. Caroline Duggar, married a Dr. Battle

Dr. Williams and Dr. Battle were from La Grange, Ga.

NOTE: The foregoing family history was given to Mr. Mays or Judge Edward Mays by a letter bearing the date of October 30, 1893, she being then 72 years old, and having gathered the same from family letters and family conversations.

FROM THE TENNESSEE D. A. R. STATE RECORDS, I HAVE A ZEROXED COPY OF THE FOLLOWING:

X JOHN HAWKINS, oldest son of JOHN and MARY (WALLER) HAWKINS went to Rowan County, North Carolina. JOHN married MARY (Polly) GOODMAN, daughter of John Goodman, on December 21, 1796, in Rowan County.

(Ref: Page 120 in the book, Marriages of North and South Carolina by Clemens.)

The 1810 Census of North Carolina shows John Hawkins in Rowan County with one male 26-45, which is JOHN, one male under 10 years of age, which is BENJAMIN who was born June 3, 1803, and 2 girls under 10 years of age, and one girl 10-16. MARY, his wife was dead at this time.

John was married to Elizabeth Varner before 1816. (Randolph County Deed Book 13, Page 354 of the estate of Jacob Varner.)

May 19, 1800: Orange County Deed Book 8, Page 360, when John and Hardress Hawkins, brothers and heirs of John Hawkins, deceased of Orange County, North Carolina, agree to a division of land. John agrees to: One tract whereon my father lived, adjoining John Lin, George Fogleman, and the Orange County Line, 640 acres, and one other tract adjoining Robert Fields, Jeremiah Fields, 641 acres. Signes by names. Witnessed by J. Scott and Isaac Holt. Proven May 1800.

When John and Elizabeth sold their last land, 250 acres to Benjamin Hawkins, son of John, in 1825, they moved from North Carolina, possibly to Kentucky. Mr. Johnson said that he could never place them on any later censuses in North Carolina.

XI BENJAMIN HAWKINS, son of JOHN and POLLY GOODMAN HAWKINS, was born on June 3, 1803, in Randolph County. He married ELIZABETH KINDLEY on February 28, 1825 in Randolph Co.

Elizabeth Kindley was the daughter of Shadrach and Margaret (Briles) Kindley. (North Carolina Marriage Bond, 1791.) Margaret Briles was the daughter of Michael Briles - dead in 1772, Rowan County. Michael Briles was the son of Conrad Briles and his wife, Margaret. Conrad Briles was the son of John and Ursula Briles who came from Germany in 1717 to Germania, Virginia.

Believe he must have appeared in Pascagoula about 1835-36, per ages of oldest child Eveline.
Don't believe he was in the Mexican War, but bet he is in some of the New Orleans records.

Check the 2 books that have passengers between Mobile and other ports in those years. Don't remember the name of the books.

Subject: Greetings From Kingwood Texas - Judy & Gerald

Hi Renee,

I hope everything is good with you.

I have been a busy bee since the last time I sent you a message. I have spent an enormous amount of time going through almost every year of the Galveston City Directories and I have found out that great-grandpa Charles Hawkins and his wife Carrie did move to Galveston with the rest of the family. After a brief time in Ocean Springs after they married, they moved to Galveston about 1874. Now I have to find a death record and a burial record for him. He's here!!!! and not in Mississippi. He died in either 1876 or 1877. That meant he was only 36 or 37 years old. Carrie never remarried.

I'm getting a good idea of what all of these Hawkins families did while they were in Galveston. Most of them worked in the cotton industry as brokers, buyers, & pickers.

The oldest son, Thomas K., arrived in Galveston at least as early as 1866 and went in to business with someone else. The others were not far behind.

I've never read anything about what life was like in Pascagoula after the Civil War ended and they no longer had slaves to help out with the farms. Do you know of any book that tells this story?

In some census record or city directory, Evelina Hawkins, gr-gr-grandmother married to Thomas Hawkins, declared herself a widow. I guess he died in Pascagoula between 1850 & 1860.

I have really enjoyed reading the book that I bought at the meeting last month, "Thought You Should Know" by Betty Oswald. On pages H59 - H60 about Greenwood Island, it is stated that President Fillmore bought a tract of land on the mainland for establishing a military post and marine hospital station. This camp at East Pascagoula, Camp Jefferson Davis, was in use until the Civil War. I don't know if Thomas Hawkins was part of "Shields Brigade" and may have been buried in the cemetery there, but he did fight in the Mexican War and he was alive in the 1850 census, but died before 1860. The book also states that in 1907, the hospital was closed and the remains of the veterans were removed to the national cemetery in Mobile. Is there a list anywhere of the soldiers that were moved?

On page H62 of the same book there is mention of another "asylum" hospital with a cemetery that was also moved in 1907. After the closing of the hospital in 1855, the remaining six soldiers were transferred to the new hospital at Harrodsburg, Kentucky. Could there be a list of those buried in this cemetery or of the six soldiers sent to the hospital in Harrodsburg?

If I could find Charles Hawkins, I'm holding out hope for finding Thomas Hawkins.

Along the way through the Galveston City Directories, I ran into a number of Gautiers.

I just thought of one more interesting thing. On page H34 in the same book referred to above, there is a section on Captain John Grant. He was born in 1796 in Pennsylvania and moved to Baltimore at an early age. He then moved to Mobile in 1827 and then on to Pascagoula where he had land in the East Pascagoula section. My thoughts are that Thomas Hawkins born in Baltimore in 1800 could have been friends with John Grant and could have moved to Pascagoula because of him. That may be a stretch, but it seems possible. Do you think there could possibly be anything in a family folder on John Grant that might refer to Thomas Hawkins? There has to be a reason for Thomas Hawkins to have moved to Pascagoula from Baltimore, I just have to figure it out. I also have a lot of work to do on data in Baltimore.

Wow! My note ended up longer than I planned. I guess you can tell that I'm excited about my research and what I've been able to find based on what I learned in Pascagoula.

Gerald and I hope to make a return trip sometime. Maybe it will be to bring you a folder full of Hawkins material for your library.

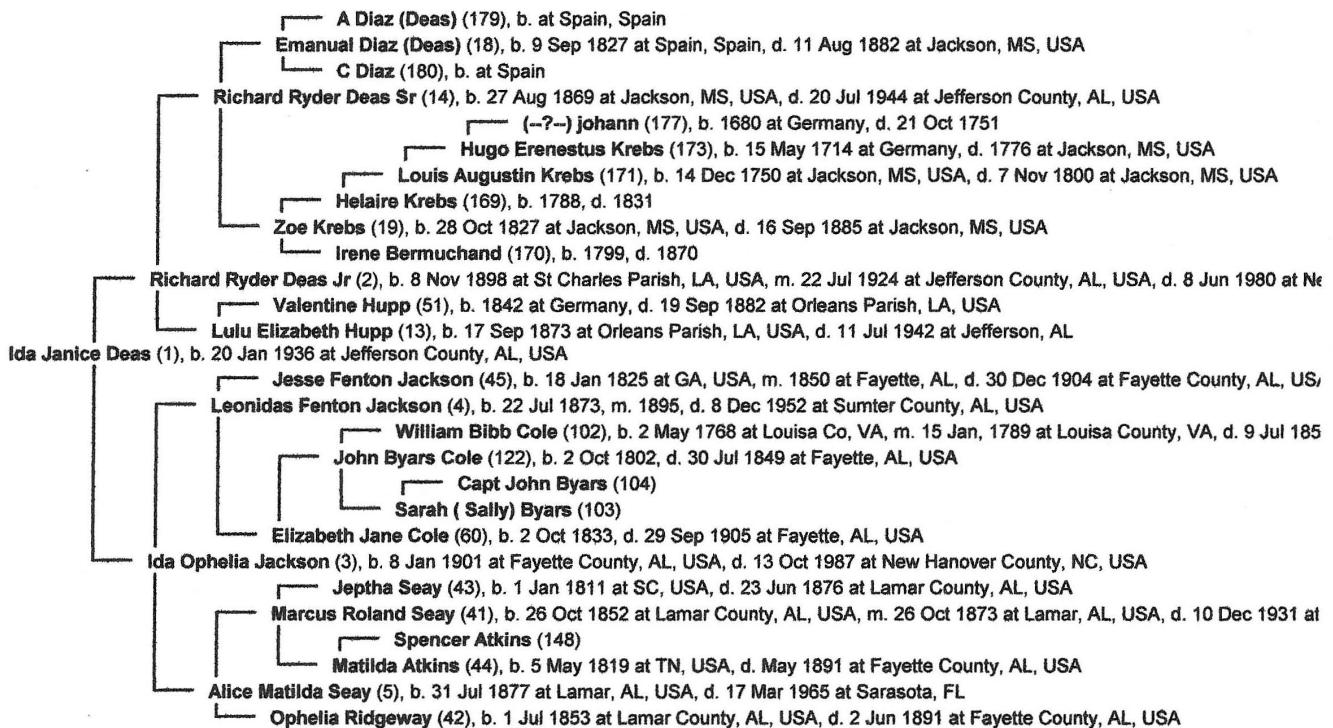

Thanks again for the help that you have given me.

Hello Renee:

I understand about you not being able to be on the computer much. Thank you so much for the 1850 census.

I don't have Sophie Bilbo's Obit, please send it to me. Thanks.

Thomas and Eve's-2nd generation son John-3rd generation daughter Patience Hawkins b1869 married Thomas B Stallworth b.1866-4th generation son Thomas B Stallworth b.1882 married Maggie Jenkins parents 5th generation of my grandmother Victoria Stallworth b.1902 married Charlie Chestang, 6th generation my dad Charles Peter Chestang b.1921-d.1989 married Olga Mae Brazley b.1921-d.2013. I hope this is clearer.

In my last email I included picture of my paternal 2nd grgrandfather Ebenezer 'Need' Jenkins born in Greene County and died 27 Jun 1894 in Moss Point, he was the father of Maggie Jenkins. Need's parent were a planter in Greene County John "Jack" McInnis b.1816 NC-d.1899 in Greene County and mulatto woman Frances Brown Jenkins d.1884 in Moss Point. Need took his mother's married name Jenkins, but I would love to see if I can find anymore about Need and his mother.

The only information I have on the Deflanders is information I found on ancestry.com and from Eunice.

My tree has gotten totally out of control, because I keep linking so many people with my Chestang/Brazley and Bilbo families. My father's family knew quite a bit about their family, but Mom's family the Brazley's are still a mystery to me and no one would share with me before they passed away.

The search goes on and I can't wait to come to Pascagoula and to go to Mobile in August.

Thanks for whatever you can send me.

Anne

Ann,

I haven't had a chance to work much on this. Hawkins has been hard to pin down. I am trying to contact a researcher from Texas who may know more. Apparently, they all moved to Galveston.

I have a ton on Helaire Krebs that I will send if you'd like.

How do you descend from Hawkins and Eve? I can't figure it out because your tree is so big! If you would just name the generations, that'd be great. We are so busy all the time that I can't stay at my computer for very long.

Food prices dip slightly

By LOUISE COOK

Associated Press Writer

Sales on beef and a leveling off of sugar prices brought a year-end bonus to shoppers trying to hold down the family grocery bill, an Associated Press marketbasket survey shows.

The AP drew up a random list of 15 commonly purchased food and nonfood items, checked the prices on March 1, 1973, at a supermarket in each of 13 cities and has rechecked each succeeding month.

The survey showed that the bill went down during December in seven cities and up in six. The average decline was 3 per cent; the average increase was 2 per cent. Overall, the bill decreased an average of seven-tenths of 1 per cent during the last month of 1974. In November, the bill was up in 12 cities, boosted by sugar price increases and rising an average of 6 per cent.

The total marketbasket bill was up in every city over the 12-month period that ended in December 1974, rising an average of 20 per cent, primarily because of increases in the price of sugar. Peanut butter went up in all 13 cities over the year, reflecting the rising costs of oil; detergent also was up in every city and so were chocolate chip cookies.

The December declines were due mainly to sales on beef that reflected record supplies of cattle coming to market. All-beef frankfurters declined in 10 cities during December, down an average of 14 per cent, and increased in only two, up an average 5 per cent. The price was unchanged in the 13th city.

A comparison of current prices with those at the end of 1973 showed that all-beef franks were lower now in 11 cities, with a 24 per cent average decline.

Chopped chuck declined in four cities during December and in nine cities was lower at the end of 1974 than it was a year earlier. Several other items also are cheaper now: butter went down in 11 cities during the 12-month period and eggs declined in 12 cities over the year.

The lower meat prices aren't likely to last, however. Although there is more beef available than ever before, pork production is declining and the smaller supplies will push prices up again in 1975.

Sugar prices showed some sign of easing during December, according to the AP survey. The price of sugar actually declined in five cities, down an average of 7 per cent. The price was unchanged in five cities, up in two and unchanged in one.

Over the year, however, the price of a five-pound sack of granulated sugar was up in every city, with the average averaging 258 per cent as retailers raced to keep up with higher wholesale prices. The price generally went from about 8 cents for five pounds of sugar to $2.75 or more, but recent declines in wholesale prices have offered some hope of relief.

The items on the AP checklist were: chopped chuck, center cut pork chops, frozen orange juice concentrate, coffee, paper towels, butter, Grade-A medium white eggs, creamy peanut butter, laundry detergent, fabric softener, tomato sauce, chocolate chip cookies, milk, all-beef frankfurters and granulated sugar.

Vandalism to the Pascagoula Police Academy in the Bayou Cumbest area. Police said pieces of concrete were thrown through the glass front door.

Gold prices

By LEE MITGANG

AP Business Writer

Gold prices on U.S. commodity markets and European bullion markets fell steeply today, amid early signs that Americans were remaining reluctant to buy the precious metal.

Reports by the nation's banks and brokers indicated that retail sales of gold bullion were continuing at the sluggish pace set Tuesday, when Americans were able to buy gold bullion legally for the first time in 41 years.

Sugar prices showed some sign of easing during December, according to the AP survey. The price of sugar actually declined in five cities, down an average of 7 per cent. The price was unchanged in five cities, up in two and unchanged in one.

Over the year, however, the price of a five-pound sack of granulated sugar was up in every city, with the average averaging 258 per cent as retailers raced to keep up with higher wholesale prices. The price generally went from about 8 cents for five pounds of sugar to $2.75 or more, but recent declines in wholesale prices have offered some hope of relief.

The items on the AP checklist were: chopped chuck, center cut pork chops, frozen orange juice concentrate, coffee, paper towels, butter, Grade-A medium white eggs, creamy peanut butter, laundry detergent, fabric softener, tomato sauce, chocolate chip cookies, milk, all-beef frankfurters and granulated sugar.

Cause of the 12:02 a.m. blaze has not been determined. Mrs. Jones was found in the kitchen of the wood frame house and firemen said the fire apparently started in the living room.

Mrs. Jones was alone in the house. Her husband, T. B. Jones, returned from work while firemen were still on the scene. Jackson County Coroner

VISUAL REMEMBRANCE & KNOWLEDGABLE FACTS
JOHN & IRA HAWKINS
(Our Family Roots)
By
Annie Mae Hawkins Brown Randall.....

The Hawkins - The Stallworth's and The Robinson's were among the numerous men who migrated from the shores and/or hills of Alabama to the industrial saw mill town of Moss Point, Mississippi.

The strong and vibrant roots of the Hawkins Clan began when John and Ira met and united in holy matrimony in the early 1800's.

The first generation began with 2 sons and 2 daughters. John Hawkins Jr., Willie Samuel Hawkins - sons, and Patience Hawkins and Mittie Hawkins - daughters.

"Grandpa Hawkins" as he was affectionately called was a strong willed person. Although uneducated, he had an intellectual sense of direction. His integrity and ambition to work and to provide and protect his family was very evident.

He worked as a laborer on barges that floated yellow pine logs down the river to the "Old Saw Mill" at the point of the town. These logs were made into lumber. This valuable timber was much in demand, and many of the older homes throughout our town still stand as a symbol of yesteryears. Grandpa related to us (his children and grandchildren) that he labored for fifty-cents a day (50¢). But Grandpa had a vision. With this meager sum, he opened a bank account, with the Moss Point National Bank (now, The Pascagoula-Moss Point Bank). He purchased three and one-half acres of land for $100.00 on the midsection of Sand Hill (now Mayo Street).

This purchase was listed by a Fred Taylor - in the Book of the Jackson County Courthouse - as Hawkins Subdivision.

On the South side of this tract he built a modest home for his family; and later a smaller home, on the southwest corner as a rental property to supplement his income as numerous families were migrating to Moss Point seeking employment at the big saw mill.

Hawkins Family

As the children became adults - naturally they married - and their homes were built on plats of land from the subdivision.

Patience, the oldest daughter was married to a Mr. Thomas Stallworth (called Tom for short). Mr. Tom Stallworth was noted as a man with "Brain & Brawn". He was employed at the Dantzler Saw Mill as a stevedore, and later as a steward over the shipment of lumber. Mr. Tom with a desire for a large family built a spacious three gable house of the best grade of yellow lumber, across from the Hawkins family home, a part of the original tract.

About a year or so later the attractive young daughter of Ira and John Hawkins met, courted and was married to her handsome suitor, Albert Robinson, who was also employed at the saw mill and as a delivery man of the commissary store. They lived and raised their family in the house on the west corner of the Hawkins subdivision.

John Hawkins Jr., the oldest son, was married to Evelyn Lancaster and they resided on the Lancaster estate with Pheobe (Fe-be) older sister of his bride who lived in the frog pond section (now called Hall Avenue).

Willie Samuel Hawkins, the younger son worked and saved and built his home on the rear of the family home facing the "Lane" (now called Thompson Street). It was related that he carried his bride - Addie McElroy Hawkins, the daughter of Rose and Baily McElroy over the threshold of their new home.

During the course of events Grandpa Hawkins was employed with the Moss Point Export Railroad, commonly called the Pine Knot Special. His duty was to keep the engine well fired to support the flat cars of heavy logs and timber - to the Pascagoula L & N Railroad for export to other places. The engine was fired with native pine knots. The fumes were strong, smokey and sparkling. As a result Grandpa gradually lost his eyesight and became legally blind. This tragic incident however, apparently did not daunt his spirits. He managed to keep up his "Kitchen Garden", harvest his crop in due season and did small chores around the house.

On hot summer days, during the cool of the evening Grandpa would sit on the porch in his favorite cane bottom rocker and sing in a clear loud voice his favorite hymns and spirituals - one of his favorite's, I recall was "Lead Me O Thou Great Jehovah - Pilgrim through ~~This~~ Barren Land etc., Rock of Ages and numerous others. We would often join in and "sing-a-long", with Grandpa to his delight.

Whenever Grandpa chose to visit his neighbors and friends in various parts of the town - the ~~gra~~NDCHILDREN TOOK TURNS LEADING HIM. I remember distinctly - after Grandpa began to grow quite feeble he expressed a desire to visit his friends. Among these were the Wallaces, Polks, Dantzlers, Butlers, Schulairs, Hydes and his Minister (Rev. Smith, as I vaguely recall), as I recall - I remembered being the last grandchild to lead him around before his death. I also remember - and clearly visualize the following incident:

It was about mid day on a clear May morning when Grandpa received his summons to join the heavenly host - and with a clear mind and a peaceful countenance, with Grandma at his bedside - He asked her to send someone to get "Pick" from the saw mill to come right away - He also sent for his Minister and his lawyer - and of course Grandma also sent for the Doctor - who came in his one-horse drawn buggy. The Minister prayed. Grandpa said he didn't need the Doctor - anymore - He related some information to the lawyer with the Minister as a witness and made his last earthly will and testament, with Willie (Pick Hawkins) - sitting beside him on the bed and Grandma holding his hand. Yes, I and Bernice and some of the other younger grandchildren were there; the older ones were in school. It was said that my father, Willie Hawkins was nick named "Pick" by Grandpa, as he was his younger son and the "Pick" of the family. This name followed him through life and many people know him only as "Mr. Pick" or "Uncle Pick", or just plain "Old Pick Hawkins".

The very next morning, Grandpa slept peacefully away. As was the custom, a wreath was placed on the door. He was waked at home - and was laid ⁱⁿ ~~on~~ the parlor a "coolingboard", overnight. Then placed in a pine box casket the next day just before his burial. Recalling this scene, relative to the funeral - the Minister proceeded the glass cased hearse (bier) which was drawn by two white horses, the 2 family coaches were two row seated "Fringed Surries" - lantern. Her fee was only $5.00, and in many cases she received no pay at all. She called these her "Charity babies".

She kept in touch with all her deliveries until the parents were able to take care of their babies themselves, especially young inexperienced mothers. She loved all children and almost all of them returned their love for her.

Grandma had a unique cure for what ever "ails" or complaints anyone had. She made her annual "trek" into the woodlands and fields in the Spring and Fall of the year; gathering various herbs and plants which she used in Teas or Rubs - for various remedies. She used the fat or tallow from beef or lambs in her skillful ways as her "cure all" medicine. This she inherited from her Indian ancestry. Mullen leaves was a certain remedy for colds and/or fever or simple headaches - and the Mullen she planted in our yard, comes up all over the place every year and continually grows until it forms a stem of blossoms and seeds.

Grandma Hawkins was the source of our spiritual background - She was truly a creature of the universe. The sun, the moon and the stars, also the formation of the clouds and the atmosphere itself. She had a keen sense of astronomy, also a gift of her ancestry.

She told us -(her grandchildren) about the different phases of the moon, and what to expect weather wise during each quarter. She gave us an "eerie" feeling of the moon when she cautioned us to always try to see the new moon on a cloudless night - in the clear of clouds the branches of the trees, for if we saw the "new moon" clearly - this would be a good month for us - otherwise we would have out "ups and downs". And the full moon! - we often heard her say - "Lord, I wonder what poor soul will leave us now?". (Those, we later learned was "Folklore" and/or belief of the Indians.

However, her spiritual background was realistic. Grandma was a sexton of the Presbyterian Church - (a century landmark located now on Dantzler Street). We, her grandchildren often went with her on moonlite nights - and on the darkest nights she carried her lantern to guide our way. We helped Grandma get the Church in order for the Sunday morning services. Grandma between two hot smothering irons or on the hot plates or lids of her wood range cook stove. She carried this sacrament bread to Church in a special container.

On Sunday mornings she would sometimes be called to attend the services of this Church, where she sat in a lofty pew with the babies and smaller children during Sunday School Classes.

She observed the Sunday School Classes and listened to their lessons which was taught with small Biblical cards and a large chart used by Sunday School Teachers to explain the lessons of the scriptures as related to the small cards. When these Charts were used for a while, they were discarded and replaced with newer ones.

Grandma brought the old charts and cards home, put them in her parlor and during the week would take us (grandchildren) in there and taught us these lessons as she had observed them. Afterwhich we were given molasses bread and tea or teacakes and lemonaide. An occasion we always looked forward to.

Grandma's favorite scripture was from the book of Job. She often recited scriptures during her lively pilgrimage and after each one she said, "Job", even if it wasn't from the book of Job. Her favorite songs or hymns were "Ezekiel Saw the Wheel, Rock of Ages, The Old Ship of Zion and numerous others. Grandma liked good singing, she sat in the A-men corner of the Church and she shouted whenever she felt the spirit, or desire to shout with or without her peers. She always kept a prayer on her lips and a song in her heart.

When she became weary and realized her health failing, she moved to Biloxi with her son "Pick" and his family in the Creole Section of Biloxi. She became friendly with the neighbors and they accepted her friendship wholeheartedly and they often came to talk and visit with her.

Finally, Grandma became bedridden and knew her time was near at hand and expressed her readiness for her summons. Early one September morning in 1925 - she called us to her bedside (Papa, Mamma and all the children) - then she said - "Children! I'm going to cross Jordon River this morning and I am going to cross it dry!". They ^{had} she fell into a calm peaceful sleep at the age of 93 (Grandma measured her age by telling us she was 20 years old when ^{they} surrendered - that was the war between the States - South vs North).

We followed the usual procedure upon her death, although our hearts were heavy with grief. Her shroud was a soft pale lavender - the color of the morning glory - that blooms in the early fall and spreads its fragrance in the clear fresh air of the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Services
Grandma was "waked" in the spacious Parlor of her son Pick's home - where all the families far and near gathered - and the next morning a funeral motorcade of numerous friends and natives of Moss Point who had migrated to Biloxi and towns nearby, for one of the largest funerals in the history of Old St Paul Church.

Grandma was laid to rest beside her beloved husband - John Hawkins Sr., whom she affectionately called "Pa". They are together again in the spiritual realm.

Although the branches of our family tree have and has extended from the four corners of these United States and even beyond its borders, the life blood interwoven within us from our roots has formed a bond between us all --- a bond that does not break.

I remember Grandma Hawkins, my paternal grandmother. This was the lantern she used as a mid-wife to guide her through the woods and by-ways during the night whenever an excited father called her to aid in the birth of a child.

Grandma Ira Hawkins - known by many as Aunt Ira, also used this lantern to guide her up the path, which is now Weems Street to the historic Presbyterian Church on Dantzler Street, where she served as sexton. She also made the communion bread by pressing the ingredients between two red-hot flat irons.
